

Carol F. Q. Mackillop

Mackillop Law Professional Corporation advises employers on labour, employment, and governance issues. Carol regularly appears in courts, as well as in administrative tribunals including the Ontario Labour Relations Board, the Human Rights Tribunal, disciplinary proceedings, and rights and interest Arbitration hearings. The firm's clients draw from both the public and private sectors.

Carol has been an invited speaker for organizations including the Frontenac Law Association, Queen's University's Centre for Industrial Relations, Faculty of Law, and School of Policy Studies, the HRPA, and the Law Society of Upper Canada. Carol is a member of the Frontenac Law Association, the Ontario and Canadian Bar Association (labour and employment law subsection) and the Greater Kingston Chamber of Commerce. She is on the Board of Directors of the Kingston Symphony, the Grand Theatre Foundation and Queen's University's Centre for Law in the Contemporary Workplace. She is a past Chair of the Kingston General Hospital Board of Directors and is the Academic Representative on the Local Health Integration Network's Collaborative Governance Development Team.
