

Jordan Brezer

Jordan is a third year JD/MIR student at Queen's University. He has an undergrad degree in law from Carleton, as well as a Masters in Industrial Relations from Queen's, where he was the 2017 recipient of the Robert Grant Fellowship in Industrial Relations. He has previously worked as a Research Assistant with the Public Service Labour Relations Board, and was an Editorial Volunteer with the Canadian Labour and Employment Law Journal. Jordan summered at Filion Wakely Thorup Angeletti LLP in Toronto.