

Simran Prihar is the Senior Legal Advisor at the Ontario Nurses' Association. She currently lives in Toronto with her spouse and her 3-year old son. Simran grew up outside of Vancouver and graduated from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Economics. After receiving both her Juris Doctor and Master of Industrial Relations from Queen's University, Simran was called to the bar in 2009 and practiced union-side labour law at Sack Goldblatt Mitchell LLP in Toronto. In 2011, she became in-house legal counsel for the United Food and Commercial Workers, Locals 175 & 633. In 2012 she became in-house counsel at the Ontario Nurses' Association, and litigated before arbitrators and the Ontario Labour Relations Board for four years. In her current role she practices all aspects of labour law including complex litigation and bargaining. She also acts as a strategic and legal resource to the CEO and Board of Directors on all legal matters affecting the union. Simran is also Ontario Vice-President of the Canadian Association of Labour Lawyers and sits on the Board of Directors of the Reel Asian Film Festival in Toronto.
